

DRUG SUSPECT ASKED ABOUT NEVILLE SLAYING.

Said to Be in Shack When Policeman Was Murdered.

James Carr, arrested on a charge of grand larceny and possessing drugs illegally, will be questioned by the police to-day to see if he knows anything about the murder of Policeman Daniel J. Neville in "Hell's Kitchen." The police say Carr is the official "dope peddler" for the crowd that gathered in the shack where William Hoey, the paroled convict, acted as watchman and from which Neville was shot. It is said Carr was in the shack at the time of the murder.

Carr was arrested in a cellar at 27th Street and Sixth Avenue, after, it is charged, he stole a package valued at $53 from the rear of a truck. When searched the police found what they say is heroin tied to his shirt. Carr, who is twenty-six and lives at No. 529 West 39th Street, has a prison record with a long list of suspended sentences, the police said.

Two women, one of whom said she saw the shooting and three men come over a fence immediately after, are among six new witnesses to the crime. The other woman said she saw six men in a vacant lot just before the murder.

POST CARD BETRAYS CITY CODE VIOLATOR.

W. Semel of No. 137 Livingston Street was before Magistrate Joseph E. Corri- gan in Essex Market Court to-day on complaint of Michael Schrage, Inspector of the Department of Street Cleaning, who said the defendant violated the sanitary code by throwing a bundle of refuse into the gutter. Semel denied the charge, but Schrage came up with a post card addressed to the defendant and which, the inspector said, he found among the refuse. This was enough for the court and Semel was fined $1.

SHOT TWICE FROM AMBUSH.

Bront Man, Fired On From Thompson Street Highway, Dyck.

Terry Satusko, twenty-five years old, of 151st Street and Prospect Avenue, the Bronx, while walking in front of No. 175 Thompson Street last night was shot twice by an assailant concealed in a nearby hallway. The ambusher escaped and his identity was not learned. One of the bullets struck Satusko in the left breast near the heart, and the other penetrated the left side of his back. He was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital. His condition is critical. Satusko was unconscious when found by Patrolman Conway of the Morris Street Station. He is said to be a relative of Bobby Doyle, a pugilist.
